Kevin represents employers in all major areas of employment law, including race, age, gender, religion, national origin, disability employment discrimination, harassment, and retaliation claims, wrongful discharge claims, and wage and hour claims, including class and collective action wage and hour matters.

OFFICE LOCATION

301 Fayetteville St., Suite 1900
Raleigh, NC 27601
P.O. Box 1801
Raleigh, NC 27602

JURISDICTIONS LICENSED

North Carolina, South Carolina

BIOGRAPHY

Kevin defends clients before administrative agencies such as the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the United States and North Carolina Departments of Labor, in state and federal courts, and in arbitrations. Kevin also guides management to ensure employment practices comply with all applicable statutes and regulations, including Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Family, and Medical Leave Act, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, the Fair Labor Standards Act, the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act, and workplace privacy issues.

Kevin has extensive experience in representing companies and senior employees in restrictive covenant matters involving non-compete and non-solicitation agreements, trade secrets matters, and other matters associated with departing employees. He regularly drafts, analyzes, and advises clients on these restrictive covenants and frequently litigates matters involving injunctions, motions, and trials involving non-compete, non-solicitation, confidentiality and trade secrets, and misappropriation matters. Kevin frequently litigates employee raiding, tortious interference, and unfair competition matters. He advises senior-level employees and executives on both onboarding and exiting issues, including the scope and enforceability of restrictive covenants, and will litigate these matters on behalf of the high-level employees.
