“I help healthcare professionals and businesses understand the regulatory environment so they can make strategic decisions that drive their business.”

BIOGRAPHY

Mysty works with all types of healthcare professionals, including those providing long-term care, primary care, home health, behavioral health, and laboratory services. She also works with healthcare innovators seeking to bring their innovations to market. Prior to attending Campbell University School of Law, Mysty worked for more than 20 years in the healthcare industry. Her experience as a healthcare compliance investigator, Medicaid appeals specialist, and a registered dental hygienist provides invaluable insights for her clients. In addition to counseling clients on regulatory, transactional, and litigation matters, Mysty regularly presents and writes about various health law topics.
