BIOGRAPHY

Randy has been trying cases in North Carolina since 1990, and has tried cases to jury verdicts in ten counties as well as the Federal District Court for the Eastern and Middle Districts of North Carolina. He primarily represents trucking and other transportation companies, working with the companies and their insurance carriers in defense of liability claims. He has extensive experience in dealing with catastrophic injuries and is frequently retained to manage the investigation of serious accidents prior to the suit being filed. He also represents businesses in a wide range of commercial disputes, and is a certified mediator.

Randy is the firm's delegate to the USLAW Network's Transportation Litigation practice group.
